

Notification of Termination of a Home Education Program

Introduction

Pursuant to RSA 193-A:5 and Ed 315.06, parent(s) terminating a Home Education Program for a child must notify the participating agency that the parents(s) notified of the termination of the Home Education Program within 15 days of said termination. This will be either the commissioner of the department of education, the resident district superintendent, or the principal of a participating nonpublic school.

This form is being provided for your convenience in submitting the required notification of termination of a home education program. Page 2 of this document outlines exceptions and provides additional guidance on when to use this form and applicable statutes and rules.

Please return this form to the commissioner of the department of education, resident district superintendent, OR principal of a participating nonpublic school who must acknowledge to you the receipt of the notification within 14 days of such receipt.

IF you are returning this form to the commissioner of the department of education, please send this form to: homeeducation@doe.nh.gov.
